Scripts Ads Related Scripts [s-counter] A simple script which uses the jQuery-UI-Slider to provide a ajax count down in seconds. [s-clock] An extremely basic script which displays a clock. It's based on the clock which displays on the front page of this site. Comments I'm sorry but the page you are trying to view the source of, is running in a newer version of IE, than the script needs. I suspect the page is running IE8, which is a bit old for the script to run in. I could always see if the site owner would be willing to upgrade the page. Unfortunately, it is an internet company, and probably have much more pressing things to do. Sorry. Hi Simon, It's running IE 8. I'm running the site on my own computer, which is a very old laptop with only 256Mb of RAM. I did try to update the IE version in my PC, but it always came up with a message that the program was not compatible. I do not know how to run the IE 8 update. I want to thank you for your script. I have it running on a site I own. We have now done the same with a site we own, too. Thanks again for your script. Keep up the good work! Hi Julie. I have the following script which I use in a few of my clients sites. It's very useful and it works perfectly. I often get requests for it to be added to my signature block, so I have now given you permission to do this. If you click the following link, it will take you to a page where you can find it. Hello there, This is my first time posting here. What's up?
