The trial court summarily rejected Plaintiff's interpretation of federal law in state court in February 2012, before the federal case was dismissed. A party is not entitled to relitigate a question that the trial court had already decided. (People v. Medina (2007) 41 Cal.4th 685, 710, 62 Cal.Rptr.3d 626, 161 P.3d 11, and cases cited [a party is not permitted to relitigate a question that has already been decided by the same or another court].) CONCLUSION For the reasons above, the district court's order denying Defendant's motion to compel arbitration must be REVERSED. The parties are free to proceed to arbitration in a manner consistent with this opinion. REVERSED. NOTES [*] The Honorable Robert E. Cowen, Senior United States Circuit Judge for the Third Circuit, sitting by designation. Q: Object reference not set to an instance of an object when a FormView object is used I'm having a really hard time trying to get this error to go away. This is a simple ASP.NET Web Forms project. Here's the code that's giving me the error:

It is considered a giallo forefather, a genre that was considered to be overshadowed at the time. Plot There is an old story about an envious murderer who lives with his daughter after the death of his wife. After a murder, he and his daughter go into hiding. On the day they leave, a string of mysterious women die at the hands of the killer.
