Viticulture is a perennial favorite of worker-placement games. Established in 2001, the original Tuscany spawned many expansions and variants, and has earned multiple awards and has been a top-seller at Apples to Apples. Eager to experience the next level of worker-placement gameplay, Apples to Apples Gaming and Gales of Nova developed Viticulture: Essential Edition. Viticulture features three expansions to the critically acclaimed classic Tuscany, which receive new board design, structure cards, meeples, and now come in a special box designed especially for Tuscany fans. The essential edition also features new animated mechanics where workers can change seasons and requirements, and a revised layout to help make a smoother playing experience. This game is designed to help local players learn, develop and enjoy the game by providing a more streamlined experience in which more game elements can be explored. There are fewer meeples in Tuscany to complete the challenge of the base game, but those meeples allow for many more actions in all seasons of the year.Viticulture: Essential Edition is a traditional worker-placement game with a strong focus on management and making a strong point for the player with the best wines. The player with the most cherries at the end of the game wins. The player with most points is the winner of Tuscany: Essential Edition. This content is available under the GAMETO PLAY license and can be used for the game Tuscany: Essential Edition - Added 33 structure cards for the expansion. - Added 14 special workers with additional abilities. - The four layers of the board are now visible in the board options. - Added special wooden stars and a new background in the board options. - Added a revised starting deck and more cloth banners (26 in total). - Improved the animations for meeples. - Added graphical players for all meeples (more compact and quicker than before). - Improved the animation for worker swapping. - Revised the winter theme song. - Revised the winter tile set. - Added special tiles for removing player's actions (chosen by the player). - Improved resolution of the barcode system. - Improved the barcode system for sending requests. - Improved the macro and added a context menu in the board options to change many board settings. - Added the vineyards to the roads. - Added the printer icon in the board options. - Improved the load screen c9d1549cdd

The Sneakin' Track Pack marks the latest achievement in the roguelike roguelike battle game that has captured the hearts of millions. Developed by award-winning independent studio HyperDuck Studios, Sneakin' Track Pack is the ultimate mash up of hacking and slashing - a uniquely strategic game of tactical evasion and adaptive combat. The Sneakin' Track Pack is the brainchild of composer Chris Geehan, the creator of Thief Of Time, a critically-acclaimed first-person mystery game featuring the vocal talents of Elsie Lovelock. Geehan, a longtime board game composer, set out to create a "lighter" experience that combines the best of his skills as an audio-game designer. After bringing in a top-notch production team at HyperDuck, Sneakin' Track Pack was born. Sneakin' Track Pack is now available for download at www.sneakin'trackpack.com. The download is about 6.16 MB and approximately 5 minutes in duration. Key Features: • Sneak through a series of procedurally-generated stealth levels • Perform a mixture of real-time hacking, stealthy sneaking and fast-paced combat • Survive the hidden conspiracies of some of the world's greatest minds • Cross-platform play with Windows, Mac and Linux • Based on the Thief of Time engine • Written in Flash ActionScript 3.0 • Compatible with the following mouse and keyboard controls: -WASD - movement -Q - Action -E - Hack -A - Sneak -S - Sprint -Tab - Quick Chat -Space - Sneak Controls will be automatically reassigned when switching to a PC or Mac operating system Key Features Hi guys! Well, I've done all I can, given the time. Sneakin' Track Pack is now available for download at www.sneakin'trackpack.com. It's 6.16 MB in size. Sneakin' Track Pack is a roguelike hack and slash romp through a series of procedurally generated stealth levels. You'll be able to hear Elsie Lovelock, who starred in Thief of Time, and is now back performing in our new game. Sneakin' Track Pack aims to recreate the balancing act of stealth and hack and slash combat, but with a
