AutoCAD Crack

In January 2014, AutoCAD released a free online version of AutoCAD to the public, and started plans for AutoCAD on Linux and iOS. AutoCAD for Linux and iOS were first released in October 2015. In August 2015, Autodesk released "AutoCAD Architecture" to the public. It includes architecture drawing and design tools, as well as a series of classic architectural references. In January 2016, Autodesk acquired architectural software firm BricsCAD. In June 2016, Autodesk released AutoCAD Civil 3D, which includes the functionality of previous releases plus it includes building information modeling (BIM) capabilities. In December 2016, Autodesk announced the extension of Civil 3D to incorporate energy modeling, including services, to be known as Autodesk Green Building Toolkit. The toolkit uses the standards and practices developed by the U.S. Green Building Council (USGBC) and the National Association of Home Builders. This included guidelines for designing and building with energy efficiency in mind. In June 2017, Autodesk acquired BroadWorks, a provider of Internet-based software, services, and solutions. In September 2017, Autodesk acquired the architectural and design software provider AECIO. In April 2018, Autodesk acquired the multidisciplinary design and engineering technology firm BIM Inc., adding expertise in design and 3D data visualization, and development of Autodesk Revit. The acquisition also added financial services related to BIM modeling and simulation. In May 2018, Autodesk acquired the digital manufacturing services provider Forgerock, a subsidiary of Emerson. Forgerock is also a Platinum Partner with Autodesk for manufacturing. In June 2018, Autodesk acquired the technology company Termiq, providing real-time analytics and mobile workforce management. In September 2018, Autodesk acquired Haworth, a provider of cloud-based manufacturing and digital product data services. In October 2018, Autodesk acquired Estimation Sciences, an add-on software tool that automates the estimation of quantities and completion time for construction projects. In February 2019, Autodesk acquired Rev.io, a software company that provides BIM collaboration and construction management solutions. The purchase price was not disclosed. In March 2019, Autodesk acquired Bax Global, a provider of product and digital manufacturing software solutions. In June 2019, Autodesk
