Congratulations are in order to the University of Louisville, the American League and the Cardinals. Ranked No. 4 in the country in May, and fielding an outstanding team, U of L fumbled the ball on Saturday against Wake Forest and lost 24-17, finishing their 2013 season with a record of 7-1 and ranked 13th in the country. The Cardinals will be playing for the NCAA championship on Dec. 6 at AT&T Stadium in Arlington, Texas. They will face fifth-seeded Texas A&M, which finished its season with an 11-2 record. The Louisville football season culminated on a disappointing note for the third straight year in which the Cardinals were considered a strong bet to contend for the American Athletic Conference title and a BCS bowl game. Losing to Wake Forest, 41-17, was a crushing blow, and 2014 might be a rebuilding year for U of L, too. "They had been in a real good run and were playing really well," said Wake Forest quarterback Tanner Price, a graduate of U of L. "They were really in it, so it was a tough loss for sure. Everyone is disappointed." U of L fumbled, with Price's ball taken by Wake linebacker Trevon Wright and returned for a score on the first series of the second half. Louisville answered with a pair of field goals but went in to halftime down 17-0 and was never able to mount a comeback. Wake Forest (9-3) snapped U of L's 10-game winning streak and ended the second-ranked Cardinals' season on a disappointing note for the third straight year. The Cardinals blew chances to take a big lead after the first quarter and after halftime, as they had three chances for touchdowns inside the 30-yard line but came up short. Louisville quarterback and Heisman Trophy candidate Lamar Jackson missed all but his one drive. He was 5 of 7 passing for 67 yards with a 13.1 completion rate. He also ran for eight yards. Cornerback Jeffrey Okudah, a team captain, was not at his best, committing a fumble and allowing two touchdowns, one by Wake kicker Tyler Smallhorn (3-of-3 on field goals, 16-of-17 on extra points) and one by Wake wide receiver Taylor Stanback (7-of-7 on extra point kicks). U of L's offense also fumbled on its first series, which was recovered by Wake Forest.
