Good Morning Sports Fans: This morning, I went to the library to get my grades. They have been unfortunate in the past month to allow me to go to the library to check my grades, and when I returned from my trip, I found out that I had a zero for the semester. So, it will be what it will be, but I feel the need to add that I am a "giver" in my classroom, and students look to me and say that they appreciate me, and want to be like me. I like to give, and that is why I try so hard to make sure my students understand the difference between giving and taking. And, because I know that many of you do not know that, I am going to explain it. I have said it before, and I will say it again, "God made us to give, not to take." We are given life by God, and to keep a gift is to take from God. I have been taught that, but it is so easy to be a taker, and if we are not brought up to give, then how do we learn to give, if we always are taking? We are raised to take, to keep the government going, we are taught that God's gift to us is not to take, but to give back to God. When I was in high school, I was a service-minded student. I wanted to be a good Christian. But, God wanted to teach me a lesson, and because of circumstance, I learned that I was a taker 0cc13bf012
