BJP's Amit Shah 'ran away' from Amethi Lok Sabha seat, says Rahul Gandhi Amethi (Uttar Pradesh): Congress President Rahul Gandhi today said BJP chief Amit Shah "ran away" from the Amethi parliamentary seat, which he had won in 2014. Rahul had in April last year accused BJP's prime ministerial candidate of having bought votes in the state of Amethi to come to power. "BJP ran away from Amethi. Amit Shah ran away from Amethi. Where was Amit Shah when we won the largest victory in the history of Amethi? He ran away, he ran away from Amethi. BJP's share was 25 per cent, a party which had been the part of the ruling family for the last 70 years. Mayawati's party had around 30 per cent and the Congress had only 24 per cent. The Congress party did not get any support from the Samajwadi Party. He then got out of the fight with the Congress. They haven't built the roads, they don't maintain the roads, they don't do anything for the people," said Rahul, who is leading his party's campaign from Amethi. But BJP defended Shah, who is holding meetings in the constituency. "What has he done to us? What has Amit Shah done to you? We are now standing tall. He has not betrayed any Hindu, he has done nothing and he is fighting against the corrupt in the country," said Amit Shah. Shah had contested the Lok Sabha polls from Gandhinagar and won. However, he lost the seat in the April-May assembly elections in Gujarat. Former chief minister Akhilesh Yadav won from his father's constituency Jannayak Janata Party. PTI

In 2014, when the U.S. Food and Drug Administration (FDA) approved stiripentol as an adjunctive treatment for Lennox-Gastaut syndrome (LGS), we experienced an epoch-making, and unanticipated, finding. Prior to FDA approval, LGS was a rare disorder that, unless treated, invariably led to severe intellectual disability and death. LGS has now become a leading cause of death among children with epilepsy. Our exciting new
